DETAILED ACTION

1. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

Misnumbered claims 23 - 29 have been renumbered 22 - 28.

Response to Amendment

3. The Amendment submitted on June 1, 2010, has been entered. Claims 2, 9 - 17, and 25 have been cancelled. Claims 1, 3 - 8, and 18 - 24 have been amended and claims 26 - 28 have been added. Therefore, the pending claims are 1, 3 - 8, 18 - 24, and 26 - 28.

4. The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed June 1, 2010 is sufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 1, 3 - 8, and 18 - 24 based upon Bohannon, Jr. (6,855,650), Lancaster (5,849,645), and Martin et al. (5,972,463) since the evidence shows that there is unexpected results by using a trilobal shaped fiber in the nonwoven material, and the prior art fails to appreciate that a trilobal fiber would have any improved properties over the round or other non-round shaped fibers suggested in the prior art.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

6. The prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest a turf reinforcement mat comprising at least one polymer net layer and a nonwoven mat layer, wherein the nonwoven mat layer comprises a trilobal polymer fiber having three convex and smoothly curved elongated lobes, as defined in claim 1, and having three substantially concave and smoothly curved channels, as defined in claim 1, which functions to capture sediment and water, to break up a flow and an energy of water passing over the mat.

7. The art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Baker, Jr. et al. (2006.0089067) is drawn to a composite comprising a mesh layer and trilobal nonwoven layer bonded together. However, Baker, Jr. et al. is not applicable as prior art, because it has a provisional filing date of October 26, 2004.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jenna-Leigh Johnson whose telephone number is (571) 272-1472. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Wednesday (8:30 - 4:00).
